

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT : Information Digest for Detailed Military Personnel

1. A digest of Armed Forces regulations, policies, schooling opportunities, and related information of a general nature, will be distributed by the Military Personnel Division each month beginning 31 October 1953. Sufficient copies will be published to circulate throughout Headquarters components and field stations where military and naval personnel are detailed.

2. This digest may not fully satisfy the needs of queries of each individual because of the wide diversity of interests. Accordingly, current copies of service journals and newspapers such as the Army, Navy, and Air Force JOURNAL, the Army TIMES, the Air Force TIMES, etc. will be maintained in Agency reference libraries. Departmental military personnel will be invited to avail themselves of these facilities, as well as the services and publication files of the Military Personnel Division which constitute the normal source of published information in this regard.

3. It is recognized that some of our detailed military person-
